Statement of Necessity:

Pursuant to T.C.A. § 4-5-209, the Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance is authorized to promulgate public necessity rules in the event that the rules are required by an enactment of the general assembly within a prescribed period of time that precludes utilization of rulemaking procedures described elsewhere in T.C.A. Title 4, Chapter 5, for the promulgation of permanent rules.

Chapter 831 of the Public Acts of 2008 created a new licensure program for charities that issue charitable gift annuities (the "Charitable Gift Annuity Act of 2008") and required the Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance to promulgate rules and regulations to effectuate the purposes of the chapter. The Act makes the issuance of charitable gift annuities unlawful on January 1, 2009 unless the charitable gift organization has met a number of prerequisites for licensure, including registration of the charitable gift annuities, and obtains a certificate of authority granted by the Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance. The Department anticipates the registration of over approximately three hundred fifty (350) charitable organizations. These rules are necessary for the Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance to establish application requirements and to begin accepting and considering applications for charitable gift annuity organizations and charitable gift annuity registrations so that the licensure program may commence after the Chapter 831 of the Public Acts of 2008 becomes effective on January 1, 2009.

After this Act became effective, the Commissioner was required to create a licensing and enforcement program for over three hundred fifty (350) charitable organizations. To implement this new licensing and enforcement program, the Commissioner was required to develop internal procedures and policies and to train the applicable personnel. The January 1, 2009 effective date did not provide adequate time for the development of this program. Due to the length of time necessary to complete the rulemaking process, these public necessity rules are required in order for the Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance to comply with the enactment of general SS-7040 (October, 2008) assembly and to ensure that the Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance has the resources necessary to implement the Act. The Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance is conducting a rulemaking hearing on March 19, 2009 to consider comments on the adoption of these as permanent rules.

For a copy of these public necessity rules contact: Tony Greer, Assistant General Counsel, 500 James Robertson Parkway, 2nd Floor, Nashville, Tennessee 37243 at (615) 741-2199.
